

Parenting Support in Enfield

Parenting Support Unit supports parents/carers with children/young people aged up to 18 years, living in or attending an educational setting in Enfield.

They work in schools, children's centers, family homes and in the community.

Their aim is to listen, support and advise by offering practical parenting strategies, individual programmes and workshops.

They also aim to empower parents/carers, by running accredited parenting programmes such as ESCAPE and Strengthening Families Strengthening Communities.

They also work alongside community, voluntary and statutory, organisations and services to provide a range of information, advice and support.
