LET'S HEAR IT FOR THE GIRLS!

The Girls Teams at SMAB have experienced magnificent success over the past two weeks. Firstly, the Netball Team stormed to a double win against strong opposition with our Goal Attack (Adaora) scoring a sensational 20 points over two games! The Girls Football team continued their charge in the Girls Borough League with two 5-0 wins over Garfield and Hazelwood Primary Schools. This leaves them current joint top of the league. A huge well done to the girls for all of their effort in the past weeks, well done!

WORLD BOOK DAY AT SMAB

On Tuesday, we celebrated World Book Day and an author, Sita Brahmachari came in and explained the journey an author has whilst writing a story. She told us that the most important part of being an author is to have a creative imagination so we can express our thoughts and emotions effectively. By Melike (Year 6)
