

I believe that education is for a lifetime and children should be given the best start in life through formal learning. Having the opportunity to oversee this as a governor is a great privilege for me. As a mum of two, my passion is for children to learn to read as it's the foundation of all that will follow in their learning adventure.

Michelle Broomes
School Governor